Travelling to Edinburgh

By Air

Edinburgh International Airport is situated a mere eight miles west of the city centre and hosts more than 40 airlines serving over 120 destinations worldwide and is expanding rapidly. Currently there are 54 daily flights to London. Airport Express buses, trams and taxis are available to transfer delegates to the city centre in under 30 minutes.

More information about Edinburgh Airport can be found here.

Airlink provides a shuttle bus service (every 10 minutes at peak times) between Edinburgh Airport and the city centre. Tickets are available to purchase in advance here. Delegates are advised to disembark at Haymarket Railway station and to follow signs for EICC on foot (5 minute walk).

By Rail

Edinburgh is linked to all the major cities and airports in Britain. The high speed link to London gets you from the heart of one city to another in just over 4 hours. Edinburgh has two main rail stations – Waverley and Haymarket. For more information on the rail network with the UK visit www.eastcoast.co.uk or www.nationalrail.co.uk.

By Road

Motorways and a network of quiet trunk roads ensure Edinburgh is easily accessible by road. The main entrance to the EICC is on Morrison Street.

There are many car parks in close walking distance of the EICC. Please access the following links for further details:
